Wasn't Expecting This

Essays on life and family
(and you know, cancer)

Adina Ciment started a blog 10 years ago in order to work on her writing. But after a breast cancer diagnosis for her and a brain tumor diagnosis for her son, her blog suddenly shifted onto topics she never expected to write about. Wasn't Expecting This is a collection of her reflections and changing philosophy as she navigated each challenge. It's a collection that explores the changing roles she juggled - mother, patient, and caretaker - and her ultimate discovery of herself as a strong and powerful woman.

Dancing with Demons: a Love Story

Written by:
Laura L. Holloway

This is a love story, but not the one you're expecting. For Laura Holloway—single mom to a teenage boy, owner of a thriving pet-care business—certain aspects of life have always felt elusive. Lasting romance. A secure sense of self in a disorienting world. A home of her own in the countryside, with huge windows and land enough for llamas and goats. Now in the throes of middle age, a dog attack brings an emotional reckoning, forcing her to face the darkest parts of herself. Will she always feel the stifling grip of fear and loneliness? Can she manifest the inner peace she truly yearns for? Will she ever feel comfortable in this frightening world of humans when animals are so much easier to understand?

Translations from the Soul

Poetry is Ashley's first language and the way she understands the world. Learn Ashley's unique dialect and dive into poems about revolutionary joy, the Black diaspora, mental health, body neutrality, and self-discovery.

This book is an extension of her heart and she hopes it finds those ready to be inspired, curious, and fall in love with words.

It holds the duality of creating for the soul and the gift of creating for others.

This book is divided into two sections, poems Ashley wrote for herself and poems she was commissioned to write.

These pages hold space for:

- revolution
- resistance
- pleasure
- rage
- connection

Translations from the Soul is a full body experience dripping with passion.

with a history of hunger relief by Claire Strom

The history of the hunger relief movement has never been documented and holds many important lessons and learning. The book will examine how food has played a critical role in society over the centuries. In particular, a detailed look will be provided on America's hunger relief efforts and Feeding America's 40-plus-year history. In addition, the wisdom and practices of many leaders over that period offer great value to all readers, even outside the hunger relief movement. Everyone deserves access to healthy food; it's a fundamental need. The meal gap continues to grow, with 38 million people deemed food insecure or otherwise hungry.

It takes a little crazy to make a difference (Dafna's Version)

It's amazing what you can learn couch surfing America.

It's even more amazing how empowered you can become when you realize that people who look like you, sound like you, have the same amount of money and education as you are making a difference to things that matter, to you. I have the stories. I met the people. I (don't do this at home kids) slept on the couches of people I met on Twitter, and I went to all 50 states, one state each week, for 52 weeks and found the people that look like you. Let me introduce you... and while I'm at it, let me introduce the amazing things that happen when you own your crazy and follow that urge to tell a story; your own story gets written.

Unleash Your Inner Goddess

Mary Grant

Are you an entrepreneurial woman with a burning desire to make a lasting impact in the world? Do you want to show up powerfully, not just for work but in every aspect of your life? Would you like to step out of your bedroom every morning feeling like you are ready to take on the world without ever having to obsess over or second guess your outfit choices?

As an experienced coach and fashion designer, Mary understands that the most important relationship a woman will ever have is the one she has with herself. But, she has seen all the places where life's curveballs can steal a woman's confidence, silence her inner goddess and leave her feeling stuck when she desperately wants to be moving forward.

Beneath the surface of every woman is a goddess
Wake her up. Let her come out to play.

This book is an inspiring journey of self-discovery and transformation that comes along for the ride while you are curating your closet. If you think this is all about clothes, you are missing the point; it's about aligning your inner self with your outer presence. Get ready to embrace a simple but powerful system that combines mindset and style to help you show up as the most authentic version of yourself in every situation.

Read this book to:

Unlock Your Everyday Confidence: Discover a simple system that helps you step out of your bedroom every morning ready to take on the world.

Curate Your Authentic Wardrobe: Create a wardrobe that empowers you to show up powerfully and authentically in every situation.

Turn Your Wardrobe Into A Powerful Mindset Toolkit: Discover how to tap into different mindsets and versions of your authentic self using curated outfit choices.

Evolve Through Life's Changes with Grace: Find a system that helps you evolve through different chapters of life, always feeling relevant and like the best version of yourself.

MOTIVESTIONS

The Missing Key To Living Your Best Life

What if all the books about self improvement weren't wrong, just incomplete? This overarching question is at the core of the discovery of MOTIVESTIONS. Why are some people happy and others miserable? Why do some people succeed while others fail? Why do some people seem to breeze through life while others struggle. Over a lifetime of reading, researching, and studying human behavior trying to answer those nagging questions of why? Michael Jenet now shares the wisdom he's learned in this groundbreaking book. Finally, Jenet brings us the answer we've always needed but never thought to ask. The missing key to enriching, improving, and enjoying every aspect of our lives; to living our Best Life.

MOTIVESTIONS

The Missing Key to Living Your Best Life

MICHAEL JENET

PRAISE FOR MOTIVESTIONS

“A step by step guide to helping you achieve more in every area of your life and Michael teaches us how to be happier while we're doing it. Great stuff!”

Why do some people succeed and others fail?

This question has been asked for centuries.

More books have been written on how to succeed, personally and professionally, than perhaps on any other subject.

In this groundbreaking book, Michael Jenet answers the question that has seemed elusive for so long. His discovery of the one piece of the puzzle that's been overlooked turns out to be the one piece of the puzzle we all needed.

Regardless of where you are in your journey, this book will break down the core of MOTIVESTIONS and show you how to live your best life; the life you've always dreamed of living.

Leader Relativity

Finally a Starting Point for New Leaders

Leader Relativity was written with just one goal in mind - helping people like you take their first steps into leadership. To guide you through the all too common moments of 'oh crap, wtf am I doing?' that start to creep in for everyone at the beginning. Leader Relativity is without question the most simplified version of leadership to ever be put on paper, and through real world examples, it outlines in detail how regular people become extraordinary leaders.

LEADER

RELATIVITY

JOE REICHERT

Michael Jai Grant

Eve is a frustrated sixteen-year-old who uncovers a dark family secret. Muriel is trapped in managed care by the son who stole her fortune. Taking advantage of a twisted moment, this unlikely pair embark on a murky mission to rectify their wrongs. Together they confront Muriel's wavering cognition, Eve's emotional wounds, and sometimes each other. They're on the road to salvation—unless their families catch them first!

Michael Jai Grant's new novel explores people's inclination to do the wrong things for the right reasons. He writes a provocative and spirited journey that challenges our notions of dementia and elder care, sexuality, the difference between religion and spirituality, and the complex world of Teenagedom. At its core, it delves into themes of friendship, family, liberation, and the circuitous routes we all take to finding our way home.

Zuri the Zebra and the Seasons of Giving

Written by:
Andrea Gelfuso

Illustrated by:
Lindy Lou Losh

Zuri the zebra spends her days walking back and forth in her zoo enclosure with nothing to do. When Sam the zookeeper forgets some cans of paint, Zuri's neighbors, a pair of rascally chimpanzees, agree to help her brighten things up. The colorful zebra begins to attract a lot of attention, but everyone is more focused on the holiday season's gift-giving to worry about the plight of the animals at the zoo. Can Zuri and her friends help change the seasons of giving after all?

ACT, ONE

A Poetry Collection

I understand the feeling of being alone, maybe even more than I let on. But these poems helped me through those dark times, and I hope that they can help you, dear reader, or someone close to you. I don't shy away from the scary, from the pain, nor even the bouts of joy, simply because those - and many more - are what make up the Human Condition. And the Human Condition is what makes us, us.

Chris Carmen Cervantes Dunn is a Colorado author who is finishing out their high school career. Though this is their first book, they hope it is impactful to all who read it. They enjoy spending time with a good book, a cup of coffee, and one of their cats; but they are often found with their sisters, or their close friends. They work with the local nonprofit, Denver Writes, and participates in their school's Speech and Debate Team.

Advance PRAISE for The Heart of Teaching

"Lisa Lee genuinely writes from the heart."

Jen Webb

"In this book, Lisa Lee gives us permission to fall in love with (or fall back in love with) teaching."

S. Dugger

"Lisa Lee's passion for educating and connecting with her students shines through in her stories, which are told with humor and grace."

Ali Lasell

"Lisa Lee has created an artfully masterful narrative in The Heart of Teaching."

Elliott Holm

"Her story is the story of so many nameless, dedicated, and loving teachers in this country. Lisa has put into words the many faces of teaching in a public school."

Oh God of Second Chances, Here I am Again

Life Happens. We make mistakes and maybe we know that we are not showing up as our best selves. Sometimes the universe hits us with a cosmic two-by-four as a wake-up call to what we are (or are not) doing. The question is not whether you will be knocked down by life. That is inevitable. The question is how do you get back up again?

Oh God of Second Chances, Here I Am Again is a book about what it takes to get back up again and again.

Bedtime Stories for Grown Ups, Vol 1.

A whimsy of colorful family members keeping each other from near disaster and headed for love, a fast-paced distraction of a mountain town kidnapping and attempted rescue, a driven retired Naval officer 'making things right' wherever she sees the need for practical mercy and justice, a mysterious and understated antiquarian bookstore owner with the key to a customer's secret heritage. And more.

This collection of stories is an escape from the stresses of life, while also reminding us of those lessons we learned as children from the fables of old.

My Modena

A Year of Fear, Laughter, and Exhilaration in Italy

More than just a funny story, we all want something real, and really funny.

Something that brings us along for the ride and gives us the belly laugh we've all but forgotten was even possible in our lives.

What if the answer to those all-but-forgotten belly laughs came from a Coloradan's adventure of moving her entire family of four to Italy for one year? What could possibly go wrong?

Everything!

Joining her on this comical journey will transport the reader, if only for a while, to a place and time away from the troubles and strife of the day.

Sometimes we all just need a break. My Modena offers that break in a hilarious true story of one woman's attempt to do the simplest of things in a foreign country with hilarious results.

Andrea Susan Valentine Gelfuso Goetz

"My Modena is an utterly hilarious memoir of expat life in Modena, Italy."

- Christina Lynch, New York Times bestselling author of The Italian Party

"My Modena is a scrumptious literary tiramisu, layered with history, art, food, fashion, culture (and culture shock), all topped with generous dollops of hilarity."

- Dianne Hales, New York Times bestselling author of La Bella Lingua, Mona Lisa and La Passione

Come with me to my Modena, an Italian city that frustrated every attempt to complete the simplest transaction. I spent a year in Italy in an apartment that was like camping, with tile, in a town full of ancient churches. Meet Melanie, a fashionista who can make ATMs bend to her will from a hundred miles away. Our landlady Giovanna, who taught me to make risotto as golden as her smile, and her husband, Raimondo, who stood by serenely as six firefighters tried to get us back into our 7th floor apartment - using a ladder truck. Come with me to my Modena.
